2. PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Prepared by Roslyn McLeod OAM

I really enjoyed the honour of leading this club because I found constant revelations of inspiration from my fellow Rotarians in this club, done not only for the club but for our community. It has been an uplifting experience and one I am truly grateful to have been given. Thank you.

May I express my sincere appreciation to the Board, the Committees and all club members who in so many different ways gave of their time and money to support our many activities. It would be remiss of me if I did not also acknowledge the loyal and productive team in my own office who did so much for the club this year.

I had a number of goals for the year as well and with the speed of the year it was challenging to accomplish everything but let's reflect on what we did achieve.

President's Projects -In line with RI theme Building Communities, Bridging Continents

I chose the CMRI cancer research team because during the years of my membership in the club we have lost some wonderful people to cancer and the faster we find a cure the better. This Team is internationally acclaimed and I thought it only fitting that the leading Rotary club should support a leading research team. I wanted a scientific research theme for our speakers this year because as a conference organiser I am exposed through my business to so many amazing aspects of science and witness how important it is to our community to be aware and supportive of the good work done across a wide range of topics and disciplines.

Our international project was motivated by Indy Singh and whilst I took it on because Indy was so passionate, I am really pleased I did as it will be a great credit to the club. Thank you Indy.

The Children's Medical Research Institute (CMRI), founded in 1958, is an independent organisation that conducts research on the genes involved in human health and development, and the fundamental causes of childhood diseases. Its scientists investigate conditions such as birth defects, cancer and epilepsy. Funds raised this year will be used to support CMRI's Cancer Research Unit and Gene Therapy Research Unit, the latter being a joint initiative with The Children's Hospital at Westmead.

This International Project, driven by Indy Singh supports a Sydney surgical team whose members perform eye surgery and medical consultations to the underprivileged in northern India. Ophthalmologist, Dr Jay Chandra, his psychiatrist wife, Dr Shailja Chandra and team provide free eye surgery and medical consultations to the underprivileged in the small city of Rishikesh. Through the support of the Rotary Club of Sydney, Vision Beyond AUS aims to involve more health workers and establish a foundation to enable their work to continue and grow.

3. MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE REPORT

Prepared by PDG Glenn Wran

The membership numbers remained stable at 128 members from June 2010 through July 2011 with fourteen new members inducted and natural attrition taken into account. The Club sadly had a number of deaths over the year, vale George Kamsler, Ian Angus and Derek Hill. There were also a further six resignations throughout the year being Tina Stanton, David Begg, Mark Peter, Jocelyn Murphy, Sarath Dasari and PP Bill Locke.

Eight of the fourteen new members are in their thirties or forties, two are women and six are from non-English speaking backgrounds namely Armenia, China, India and Italy. The new members inducted in the year were:

- Russell Galt
- James Condon

- Gambhir Watts
- Carolyn Fletcher
- Luca De Leonardis
- Angus M Robinson
- Susan Jones
- Emmanuel Kerkyasharian
- Stepan Kerkyasharian
- Michael Steep
- Richard Sun
- Glenn Wran

The major benefits of these new members are not only growth in numbers but a diversity of membership which truly represents the community in which we live. Whilst the achievement of fourteen new members is a good result, the Club and all of its members will need to focus on further membership increase and retention.

A new members breakfast was organised for the 29th June 2011, hosted by Harold Bodinnar at the Australia Club and was well attended by seven of the fourteen new members, along with President Roslyn McLeod, PE Ned Boyce and Glenn Wran.

A Membership flyer was developed with contribution from President Roslyn McLeod, Glenn Wran, PE Ned Boyce and Garry Browne. The Flyer was organised and designed by the President's team, with a mail house appointed to distribute campaign to 9,000 Sydney CBD Businesses. The campaign was developed to promote the Club and actively seek new members from the Sydney business community, along with promotion of the Club. The Club will review the return on investment from this campaign by monitoring return of flyer, enquires and membership resulting from the campaign.

4. INTERNATIONAL SERVICE COMMITTEE REPORT

Ross Colquhoun - Chair

The year 2010-11 was an exciting year for the Committee with substantial progress made in developing the overseas contacts and projects of the Club.

The year began with a visit to the Solomon Islands by three Committee members for the successful launch of Y-Fin, one of the Club projects during John Given's year as President. Y-Fin provides mentoring to groups of young people to start and run a small business. Sue Walker and Susy Coslovich have reported that Y-Fin is progressing well after our help with the pilot project.

As the year closed plans were finalised for a visit to Rishikesh in India by 22 Rotarians and friends in support of Vision Beyond Aus, one of the Club projects during Roslyn McLeod's year as President. Vision Beyond Aus provides equipment and other support for a group of volunteer eye surgeons carrying out eye surgery and giving advice to up to 1000 people. Indy Singh organised substantial funding through the Fiducian Golf Day and Geoff Wilbow organised the Club visit.

Rene Benitez and David Smith are developing our relationships with our sister clubs in Makati (Philippines), Singapore and Hong Kong. The micro-finance project in the Philippines which was a joint venture with Makati and Singapore clubs was finalised during the year. Hashim Durrani has been developing friendship relationships with several clubs in the sub-continent.

Ian Conley is managing the Adrian Golding Gift of Life program which provides medical treatment in Australia for children from South Pacific countries with serious burns or heart conditions. This is a joint project with ROMAC and it is likely we will be funding another operation early in the new year.

Paul Wenham once again organised a very successful Consular Day at the Club with 15 Consular representatives attending the Club meeting.

Richard Sun organised a Chinese New Year dinner with members of the Chinese community which resulted in a new member for the club. Sue Davidson kindly hosted a number of dinners which provided great fellowship and some funds for Vision Beyond Aus.

Bruce Edwards obtained approval for Opportunity Cambodia as a RAWCS project and is now managing a group of 5 RAWCS projects. RAWCS provides tax deductibility and volunteer support for Australian Rotary projects overseas. The Committee also chose Fiji Audiometry as a suitable project to seek the Club's next Marching Grant from the Rotary Foundation. The project will provide equipment and support for testing and treatment of hearing impaired children in Fiji.

5. SERVICE AND AWARDS COMMITTEE REPORT

Chair - Robert Funke

The Committee comprised of some 16 members namely James Allen, Ray Block, Skender Bregu, Ian Conley, Rex Doughty, Robert Funke (Chairman), Luca De Leonardis, Liz Jeffrey, Simon Martin, Ross McKenzie, Bill Neill, Janette Parkinson, Rolf Prince, John Rawson, Kaise Stephan, and Geoff Wilbow.

Over the year there were on average four standing apologies, leaving twelve members in reasonably regular attendance. The Committee was grateful for specific assistance received from time to time from Club members Joe Botta, Garry Browne, Patricia Harrison and Taine Moufarrige. Sincere thanks go to all mentioned above.

The Committee met eleven times on the 2nd Wednesday of each month at Shaw Stockbroking's city premises courtesy of and with thanks to Simon Martin. Following is a brief report on the main individual activities over the past 12 months.

VOCATIONAL SERVICE ACTIVITIES

Vocational Service Award

This was one of the core elements of the Committee's work, with the Sub-Committee for this award comprising of Liz Jeffrey, Janette Parkinson and John Rawson. The award criteria is namely the outstanding application and excellence within the applicant's vocation, this award is a prestigious one as evidenced by past winners.

This year's winners were jointly, Ann Henderson and Gerard Henderson. The selection process was challenging due to the number and calibre of nominees and we received great assistance in the preparation of the citation and thank club historian, Brian Fletcher.

Teachers Award

This successful annual award continues to be in need of a sponsor and as such was not awarded this year. Efforts in approaching one of the major banks were not successful, but thanks go to the team for their continued efforts in the procurement of financial interest of this award throughout the year.

Ethics Hypothetical

The annual Hypothetical was once again capably handled by committee member Bill Neill, with some behind the scenes support from Peter Townsend and lively participation from the lunchtime audience. From luncheon feedback on the session, the event will be held again in the 2011-12 financial year.

Police Officer of the year Award, City Central Local Area Command (LAC)

The inaugural LAC Policeman of the Year was very successfully awarded at a Rotary lunch in October 2010 with thanks to James Allen and the team. The recipients qualify as entrants into the State award held in November 2010.

Early preparations are already under way for the 2011-12 selection. James Allen with support from Janette Parkinson and Robert Funke have pencilled dates for the selection meeting with the Police to make the necessary arrangements for the 4th October award luncheon.

Origin/Australian Scholarship Foundation (ASF)

Rotary assists ASF in the award management of fully funded scholarships provided to develop the skill set of persons working in the 'not for profit' sector. The Committee provides the valued facility of national identification of applicants through Rotary Down Under and selected mail outs and finally, appraisal of applications. Team leader is Liz Jeffery with able assistance from John Rawson and Simon Martin. The 10/11 Rotary year was our first full year in this role on this exciting fully funded opportunity; our involvement is still to reach its full potential, given that only a small number of applications were received by 30 June 2011.

Vocational Evenings

The committee has this year, with thanks to Simon Martin of Shaw Stockbroking engaged in a series of Presentations on the topics of 'Real Estate - Buying off the Plan' and 'Shares'. Both evenings were successfully attended and were followed by drinks/networking.

COMMUNITY SERVICE ACTIVITIES

Community Service Award

This long standing annual event conducted by the Club, was led by Skender Bregu, with Ray Block, Liz Jeffrey and Kaise Stephan. This year it was awarded to Diana Mahony, for ceaselessly and selflessly working to assist the Children's Medical Research Institute (CMRI) at Westmead Hospital over the past 20 years.

Joan Salter Fund

Every year an amount of money from the Joan Salter Fund has been used to support Multiple Sclerosis (MS). In the past it has been channelled to MS via our support for the Rotary team in the MegaSwim. This year was no exception with $16, 000 being approved by the Rotary Board. Our ongoing association and continued assistance to the MS Society is handled with thanks to James Allen and Taine Moufarrige.

Australian Citizenship Ceremony (ACC)

The ACC was conducted at the end of May 2011 and was a great success with ten conferees 'taking the oath' to become Australian citizens. Our committee members worked in close liaison with the Department of Immigration and Citizenship (DIAC). DIAC conducted the ceremony on the day with Club members Rex Doughty and Luca De Leonardis working together to bring this year's ceremony to fruition. Thank you. From July 2011 Member, Jennifer Kwok will be involved in this program to allow Rex Doughty to step back.

Soukup Scholarship

Most Club members would be aware of the generous lump sum contribution donated to the Club some years ago by Mr and Mrs Soukup, for the purpose of providing scholarships to applicants in need who are involved in post-secondary education; particularly those in rural and regional areas. Scholarships are funded on an ongoing basis from the interest earned on the capital sum, with the funds being allocated through a separate committee, led by Bert Rosenberg and two S & A committee members, Bill Neill and the Chair. Bill Neill and the team are very well supported by Hon Treasurer Peter Blythe in the accounting and authorization of the fund outgoings.

ANZAC Day BBQ

Joe Botta led a team of enthusiastic volunteers at the Anzac Day BBQ, as he has done for many years. This year only the Hyde Park site was operated by the Club with the Town Hall site handed to Darling Harbour RC for action from 2011 onwards. Garry Browne's company is gratefully acknowledged in providing essential marshalling and temporary storage area in the company's Ultimo basement car spaces. Despite ANZAC Day falling on Easter Monday, in very trying weather conditions, over $2,000 was earned for the President's Project – Well done to Joe Botta, onsite and offsite team leaders, sponsors and all those who assisted on the day. The names are too numerous to mention in this report but our thanks go to you unreservedly.

MS Mega Swim

This annual event, ran for the 3rd time with the Club by a small team lead by James Allen and many volunteers on the day (and night) that assists the MS Society in a 24 hour team swim that raised over $214,000 this year for MS on 25/26 June 2011. Concord RC is acknowledged in that they ran the BBQ and drinks stall. Participation in the event has grown each year since our involvement and is now almost running at pool lane capacity, thanks to increasing corporate interest fostered by James Allen and the team.

Inspirational Women

Rotary, at District level, celebrated Inspirational women this year culminating in a Dinner and awards night on 10 March 2010. The Club nominated Geraldine Doogue, who reached finalist status. She was presented with her finalist award and spoke at the Club on the 14th June 2011, being unavailable in March. A small team comprising Ann Burleigh, Ned Boyce, Janette Parkinson and Robert Funke are acknowledged in this notable level of success.

6. NEW GENERATIONS COMMITTEE REPORT

Chair - Jean Elborn

The New Generations Committee again completed a number of successful programs during the 2011 Rotary year. Some were Rotary projects, others were specific to the Rotary Club of Sydney.

Model United Nations Program (MUNA)

Karen Loblay took on the job of organising a team from Tempe High School to attend MUNA in May 2011. The students are required to debate a number of topics representing a specific country. Our students acquitted themselves very well and Karen recommends this program to all Club members. Thanks Karen for your organisation skills and for transporting the students to MUNA.

Your Country Project

New Generations Committee director Jean Elborn took over the administration of this project following Wilhelm Rhode's move to London. Tempe High School provided a team of 18 students and 2 teachers to venture out to Coonabarabran where they were once again hosted by Col Welsh and his team of Rotarians from Coonabarabran Rotary Club. The students and teachers had a wonderful time, participating in a very varied programme organised by the RC of Coonabarabran. Tempe High School has been very supportive of this program and we hope to involve them again in the 2011 visit. Our thanks to the Rotary Club of Coonabarabran for their enthusiastic support of this program.

Your City Project

With some assistance from Kim Fenton and John Rawson and other Rotarians, Rex Doughty organised Your City, as he has for a number of years, and did an excellent job. Approximately 20 students from far western NSW came to Sydney for a week in November to experience the delights that Sydney has to offer. This program was again generously sponsored by Indy Singh and his team at Fiducian. Thank you Indy for your generosity and to Rex for his commitment to Your City.

Rotary Youth Leadership Award (RYLA)

Andrew Laurie took over the organisation of RYLA from Jean Elborn who was happy to hand it over after many years involvement with a very worthwhile project. Andrew had organised RYLA during a stint in the UK so was very supportive of its aims. The number of students which we sponsored was less than in previous years, but those who participated had a wonderful time and were very appreciative of the opportunity to attend RYLA. This really is one of those Rotary projects which promises a “life changing” experience.

Rotary Youth Program of Enrichment (RYPEN)

Diana Richards again organised RYPEN and she and husband Thomas took the students to and from the camp. This program assists 14-16 year olds to develop their self confidence and leadership skills. We were lucky enough to have one of the two students who attended RYPEN speak at the Club lunch. Thanks again Diana for your ongoing support of this program.

Kate Morison took on the Melbourne Cup Sweep this year to raise funds to support the New Generations Committee projects. This is proving a popular initiative and will be on again for 2011.

7. BULLETIN REPORT

Prepared by Kevin Hoffman and Jennifer Kwok

The Bulletin team of Kevin Hoffman, Editor and Jennifer Kwok, Production produced 50 bulletins throughout the year. Each Bulletin was between 4 and 6 pages long and contained articles on current and social events, weekly speakers and general communications. The Bulletin was used to promote social, fundraising and other Club events along with relevant District news and events.

The Bulletin was a source for member data such as birthday and anniversaries, up and coming speakers, events calendar and the weekly menu.

Jennifer Kwok took responsibility for recording the Clubs activities through photos and from there the Bulletin team created a 'Happy Guest & Rotary Page' which contained six to eight photos of Rotarians and Guests at Tuesday luncheons, along with photos from any events that week.

The Bulletin played a large part in the celebration of the Club's 90th Anniversary by preparing four special edition bulletins that were sepia toned for a 1920's feel and featured a Rotary moments column. This celebrated 90 years of the Club's and Rotary's history and were researched and prepared by the President's team.

In addition, Jennifer also under took the role of capturing the photos of members who had not uploaded their photos onto the Club Directory, or had not updated in a long time. Jennifer reduced the missing photos by over 50% from 45 missing photos to twenty missing photos.

Special thanks to Jennifer's team who assisted with the production throughout the year.

8. INAGUARUAL POLICE AWARDS 2010

Prepared by PP John Given

From those with a passion for their community through to specialists at the top of their game, the NSW Police Force boasts a wealth of expertise, diligence and commitment among its many and varied commands. Working together to protect the community, our officers are motivated to some extent by the quest for personal excellence, although recognition of individuals is not common in a culture of teamwork that is largely comprised of quiet achievers. That is why the inaugural NSW Police Officer of the Year awards were such a worthwhile opportunity, and a time for the entire state to recognise, honour and applaud some of the Force's finest.

Hosted by the Rotary Club of Sydney, police officers and volunteers who go above and beyond when performing their duties were honoured at a gala dinner at Sydney's Shangri-La Hotel on 13 November 2010. Rotary Clubs of NSW selected winners in four categories, as well as the overall Police Officer of the Year Award. The overall award was the culmination of more than 130 nominations from across the state, each highlighting the outstanding work undertaken by NSW police every day.

The Field Operations Local Area Command Police Officer of the Year award recognised the outstanding contribution of officers attached to LACs, while the Specialist Operations/ Corporate Services Non Local Area Command Police Officer of the Year award recognised officers attached to Specialist Commands and Corporate Services in the Non Local Area Commands award.

One officer from these two categories has been chosen NSW Rotary Police Officer of the Year.

The Rotary Clubs of NSW Volunteer of the Year award was in recognition of the outstanding efforts of the NSW Police Force Volunteers in Policing Program, and the Rotary Community award acknowledged the efforts of all employees of the NSWPF, both sworn and unsworn.

NSW Police Commissioner Andrew Scipione APM said the inaugural event served as a fitting tribute to the men and women who serve and protect the NSW community. "Police can contribute in many different ways and these awards certainly show that the community respects the hard work and diligence of police and volunteers," Commissioner Scipione said. "I want to thank the Rotary Club of Sydney for hosting the inaugural awards night and, more broadly, Rotary clubs across NSW for their continued recognition of police at the local level.

” Finalists for the awards were selected from nominations that came from either police commanders or winners of locally based Rotary Police Officer of the Year Awards. The judging panel consisted of Rotary Club presidents and a retired officer in an advisory capacity.

Rotary Club of Sydney Past President, John Given said that Rotarians, like police, understood the notion of community contribution and connectedness. “Police put themselves at risk to keep the community safe but they do many other things as well that make our communities function coherently,” he said. “As Rotarians we wanted that recognised by the community itself and this was our way of doing that.” The $22,000 funds raised from the Rotary Police Officer of the Year Awards will be donated to NSW Police Legacy and the Rotary Foundation
